We are all sinners with many faults. It'd be very meaningful to take time within the family to reflect on whether there is anything to apologize for and to seek forgiveness from one another. 우리는 모두 허물 많은 죄인입니다. 가족 안에서 서로에게 사과할 일이 있는지 돌아보고, 용서를 구하는 시간을 갖는 것은 매우 의미 있고 유익할 것입니다.

야고보서 소개 | Introduction to the Book of James

The Book of James was written by James who was the brother of Jesus, probably around AD 48 for Christians everywhere.

Where there is life, there is motion. When a person becomes a Christian, new life begins, and that life must express itself through good deeds. "What good is it," James exhorts, "if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? (2:14)" He covers a wide range of topics commanding readers to live out their faith.

베드로전후서 소개 | Introduction to the Books of 1 & 2 Peter

From 1st Century to modern day, Christians have been persecuted and suffered much. What should they do? Why does God allow it? Can good result? In the first letter, written about AD 64, Peter takes on the challenge to answer these questions they are asking. 2 Peter, written about AD 67, warns Christians against inside dangers: false teachings and immoral behaviors.

요한일서 소개 | Introduction to the Book of 1 John

1 John was written about AD 90 by John, probably then the last surviving apostle. If the Gospel of John was written to bring readers to a belief in Christ, John directs this letter to Christians, outlining how that faith should affect a person's life. God is light, so walk in the light. He is Spirit, so worship him in the proper spirit. He is love, so demonstrate that love to others. John shows how to live close to God and other people.
